

A circular badge with a thick orange border and a thin pink inner border. The background is a stylized illustration of a young man with dark hair and blue eyes, wearing a black hat with a grey feather and a dark blue cloak. He is holding a small black object to his lips. A sword is visible on his back. In the background, there are other people and a forest. The word 'DRAK' is written in white capital letters on the left, and the number '25' is written in large white digits on the right.
